AMONG THE CHURCHES

PALM SUNDAY SERVICES AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Attended by Father Mathew Society and Cadets—Communion and Other Services of the Day—Many Social Events Scheduled for April—Men's Leagues Being Organized—Two Funerals Yesterday—Accident Cases—Other News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

Yesterday was Palm Sunday and appropriate services were held in St. Patrick's Catholic church. At the 9 o'clock mass, the Hyde Park Father Mathew society received holy communion in a body.

Rev. Elliott A. Boyd, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, delivered the last of a series of talks at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association yesterday afternoon, and in the evening at 6 o'clock occupied the pulpit of the First Welsh Congregational church.

The rite of confirmation was administered yesterday morning at St. Mark's Lutheran church, after which the pastor, Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., preached a special sermon on "Perseverance in Faith." His evening subject was "The Stone of Stumbling." Daily services will be held during Holy Week, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Penbody occupied the pulpit of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian church last evening at the 6 o'clock service.

The sacraments of the Lord's supper, adult and infant baptism, were administered at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church yesterday morning, and twenty new members were received into the church. Elder William Davis was also installed.

The usual services were held at the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday. In the evening, Dr. de Gruchy spoke on the odd subject of "Amos and His Plumb Line."

The quarterly review of the Sabbath school lessons were held at the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon.

"The Galileo's Attitude in Religion: The Attitude of Men Today" was the question put to the congregation at the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church yesterday morning by Rev. James Benninger. In the evening his subject was "The Weeping Jesus."

Rev. H. C. McDermott, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, took for his morning theme yesterday the subject, "Looking Within," and at the evening service spoke on "A Strange and Unequal Contest."

The usual services were held yesterday at the English and Welsh Baptist and Congregational churches.

Rev. Hugh W. Griffith, of Plymouth, occupied the pulpit of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church yesterday, speaking in Welsh in the morning and English in the evening.

W. W. Adair, secretary of the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, spoke at the Plymouth church last evening.

Two Accident Cases.

Frank McColligan, aged 19, had his arm fractured while playing base ball yesterday. He is at the West Side hospital.

Charles Corlier, an employe of Washburn, Williams & Co., had one of his fingers partially cut off on Saturday, while at work. His injuries were dressed at the West Side hospital.

Funeral of Mrs. Pulver.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mabel Pulver was conducted yesterday afternoon. Short services were held at the house, 311 North Hyde Park avenue. The remains were afterwards borne to the Simpson M. E. church, where many friends of the family had gathered to attend the services.

The pastor, Rev. H. C. McDermott, spoke in the kindest terms of deceased, who in life was a noble christian character. The remains were taken to Chinchilla, where interment was made in the family plot.

Events of This Evening.

The Scranton Bicycle club and the Electric City Wheelmen will bowl their final game this evening in the North-eastern Pennsylvania League series. The games will be rolled on the latter's alleys.

The classes in the Simpson Methodist Sunday school, taught by John Fern and Miss Lulu Leader, will conduct an entertainment and social in the church parlors this evening. The proceeds are to be applied on the special subscription fund.

The Onetta Dancing class will hold their regular weekly social this evening in Washington hall.

Funeral of Robert Holley.

Services over the remains of the late Robert Holley were held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 348 North Lincoln avenue, and were in charge of Rev. D. D. Hopkins, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church.

Deceased was a young man of excellent reputation, and had a large acquaintance, which was fully attested at the services. Representatives were present from Keystone lodge, No. 37, Loyal Knights, of America; Electric City Commandery, No. 177, Knights of Malta; Pride of Lackawanna lodge, No. 6, Foresters of America and the Oxford Mine Accidental fund. The pall-bearers and flower-bearers were selected from the different societies represented. Interment was made in the Cambria cemetery.

Organizing Men's Leagues.

Several of the city churches have inaugurated a system whereby funds can be raised to pay off long standing indebtedness and the scheme is to form the men of the church into a league or alliance for the purpose of conducting socials, entertainments and lectures.

The male members of the First Baptist church organized some time ago under the direction of their pastor, Rev. D. D. Hopkins, and already they have accomplished much good. They have arranged a series of lectures and debates, which will be given from time to time and several interesting literary sessions have already been held.

The Men's League, of the Plymouth Congregational church, which was organized recently for the purpose of raising funds to liquidate the indebtedness on the building, is composed of some earnest workers, who have under consideration plans that will result in much good in a financial way. The literary feature of the league is also worthy of attention.

Bowling All the Rage.

Judging from the large number of bowlers who play on Beckwith alleys every afternoon and evening, the sport is becoming more popular than ever. Fifteen-ball pool is also a favorite pastime with the boys who play at the Capital Cigar Store.

Coming Attractions.

The Gama Nu society of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, will conduct an entertainment on Wednesday evening, April 3. The object is to help raise money to paint the parsonage and church.

NORTH SCRANTON NEWS.

Owen McHugh Instantly Killed in Clark Tunnel Company's Mine—Crad Morris Injured.

While at work Saturday in the Clark Tunnel company's mine, Owen McHugh was instantly killed and Crad Morris was seriously injured.

The accident occurred about 8 a. m., shortly after the men began their daily toll. The men were employed as muckermen and were placing timbers along the gangway in the fourteen-foot vein. McHugh was working on one side of the road and Morris on the other. While making prop holes, they disturbed the rib. A few warning crackings were heard, and before the men could get away, a portion of the roof fell, with a great crash, burying McHugh almost completely and forcing Morris to the ground.

The great roar of the fall attracted the attention of the miners in the other roads, and soon willing hands were at work digging for the remains of McHugh and releasing Morris from the fall.

Morris was removed to the surface and was taken to his home, where Drs. Sullivan and Ream were called. Upon examination, it was found that he had received several large cuts about the head and shoulders. His condition is not as serious as it was first reported, but he is not yet out of danger. Morris is a brother to ex-Councilman Morris V. Morris, and resides on Leggett street.

The remains of McHugh were taken to his home on West Market street and prepared for burial. A widow and several children survive him.

Holy Week Observance.

Palm Sunday was observed yesterday at the Holy Rosary church. A high mass was celebrated, accompanied with the blessing and distribution of the palms and reading of the Passion. The following will be the order of services for this week:

Holy Thursday—High mass at 9 a. m., followed by the procession of the blessed sacrament from the main altar to the altar of repository.

Good Friday—Mass of the pre-sanctified at 8 a. m., followed by devotion to the cross.

Holy Saturday—Blessing of the paschal candle and Easter water, followed by a high mass at 9 o'clock.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

A meeting of the North Scranton Republican club is called for Friday evening in their rooms, on West Market street. A debate by H. S. Alworth, C. E. Daniels, on the subject, "Resolved, That Cuba Should Become a Colony of the United States."

Miss Rachel Ross, of North Main avenue, is visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre.

The North End Glee club held a well attended rehearsal in their rooms yesterday.

The lecture of Russell H. Conwell will be delivered at the North Main Avenue Baptist church tabernacle this evening.
